My name is Daniel and I am a professional software engineer and I am a senior full-stack developer with 10+ years of experience in programming for the web. I am working with the latest trends and technologies while developing IT and web-based projects. I love sharing my talents and vast coding experience with foreign companies. With my remarkable development ability, I strive to complete the architecture, implementation, and design process of the system. It gives me great satisfaction to see a company gain from my experience and talents.

My area of expertise includes understanding the full scope of the project with clients, team coordination, requirement analysis, specifications writing, usability review, and design documentation, etc.

I like to promote an object-oriented approach to web development. I am analytical and detail-oriented which helps my clients achieve their goals with full confidence in my work.
